Pandora Jewellery Shop
Retail case study

Pandora began designing its beloved charms in the year 2000. Each charm has a meaning, or in some cases, many meanings. Whether it's a celebration of colour or pattern or a tribute to a country, occasion, activity or most importantly, a person, each charm is designed to tell the personal story of its wearer while showcasing their unique style.

Sales of the Pandora brand began in Europe and it first entered North America in 2003. The company opened concept stores around the world before its franchising model began in Australia in 2009. Pandora products are sold in more than 100 countries on six continents through approximately 6,700 points of sale, including approximately 2,400 concept stores. The company employs over 26,000 people, of whom 13,200 are located in Gemopolis, Thailand, the company's sole manufacturing site since 1989.

Karndean Designflooring was carefully selected for installation in Pandora's Christchurch boutique. The natural beauty of Karndeans design led LVT floors not only offered the perfect premium look that complemented the brand's luxury status, but also ticked all the right boxes when it came to a flooring solution that was not only simply beautiful but also fit for purpose. Featuring a 0.5mm wear layer, R10 slip resistance rating, and backed by a commercial heavy-duty 15-year lifetime warranty, Karndean's Opus wood look LVT provided the boutique with a floor that would stand up to the daily wear and tear of a high foot traffic retail space.

Imagery and Design Reproduction

Photography and print cannot always produce a perfect representation of our products. This includes colour, pattern variation and installation elements used. For this reason we strongly recommend obtaining a product sample and where possible viewing a larger sample in-store. We also recommend visiting our website for information on installation, after care and product selection: www.karndean.com/advice. We love developing new ideas and improving on our existing designs which means that sometimes products are withdrawn at short notice. We hate to disappoint and will work with you to find an alternative design. Please contact Customer Service for more information.
